BEN FRANKLIN SOCIETY
FUND-RAISING EVENTS

MARCH 2015

FELLOW SOCIETY MEMBERS -

We again had two, sold-out Events in February - Sunday Brunch on the 15th and Saturday Dinner on the 28th. Our membership growth and regular monthly event schedule have helped fill our 32-seat Brunch, and 24-seat Dinner service, to capacity.

I trust our monthly Newsletter is reaching you successfully and have found our new MailChimp email format engaging. Remember to also checkout our new Website and Facebook Pages. Like us on Facebook and select Following or Get Notifications to keep up with our Event Schedule. Post and Share our Page. Forward our Newsletter to your friends. Our Cabin is becoming known as the Rocky Ford Country Club - a welcome compliment and fitting moniker - with Chef Sara Tipton's help and passion for food service.

Sara started with us in February and everyone just loved the food! Check-out our March menus below. Make a Reservation early for a memorable outing at our Log Cabin: an upscale Saturday evening Dinner, or Brunch on a scenic Sunday afternoon.

Our Events are only open to Ben Franklin Society Members. Associate Memberships may be purchased at the door ($7.50). Food service starts promptly after everyone arrives. Remember to B.Y.O.B. - we provide glasses, corkage and mixers. Hope to see you there!

- BOB RADCLIFFE

CHEF SARA TIPTON

Bob's lengthy search to find the right person to help grow and improve our kitchen service is finally over. Sara is a perfect fit to help elevate the service level of our BreadWorks operation - passionate about food and dining service. From Greenville North Carolina, she has been a Personal Chef (Set2Cook4U) for over 10 years. Her husband, Norman Manning, is a Veterinarian and owner of the Wake Forest Animal Hospital. Meet Sara and make new friends at an upcoming BreadWorks Dining Event.

"PEGGY'S HEARTH & GARDEN" VIDEO COMPLETED

The TDA (Franklin County Tourism Development Authority) funds have underwritten our NEW Promotional Video production by Atlantic East Media - <http://www.atlanticeastmedia.com>. Final editing is complete. Our roll-out marketing campaign will follow this Quarter. View the video online at YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SIUrMajiP70> We expect to begin attracting visitors from across the State to experience this new historic and educational venue in 2015.

GARDENING ENTHUSIASTS NEEDED

We are starting a new Kitchen Garden Club committed to the continued development and maintenance of Peggy McGhee's Colonial Kitchen Garden. We also need docents for scheduled Garden Tours - training provided. BFS, with help from Novozymes and the Franklin County Tourism Development Authority, is transforming this local resource into a regional tourist attraction in 2015. Help us expand the economic development of Franklin County. Call Kerry Carter for details at 267-973-8143

KITCHEN GARDEN ARTICLE - "SOWING SEEDS, GROWING HISTORY"

Marion Blackburn has completed a new Ben Franklin Society Project Perspective Article about Peggy McGhee's Colonial Kitchen Garden titled "Sowing Seeds, Growing History" which can be read online at:

NEWS & OBSERVER: "BEST KEPT SECRET IN FRANKLIN COUNTY"

We received the Raleigh NEWS & OBSERVER (N&O) paper contest award as the "Best Kept Secret in Franklin County". This contest selected ONE site in each of the 100 COUNTIES of NORTH CAROLINA, and provides front page coverage on the Monday Edition each week from Memorial Day through Labor Day Weekend. We were featured as Site No. 42 in the Monday, July 7th, 2014 Edition. Read the online article at:

The Franklin County Arts Council (FCAC) is a nonprofit organization passionate about serving our diverse community in developing all areas of the arts. We are dedicated to providing resources to develop, encourage, and enhance such areas as literary, visual, dance, music, theater, and culinary arts for all ages. We also recognize the importance of our programs as a way to support economic development for the growth of the Franklin County region.

Visit our website, Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter pages to keep up with how FCAC is bringing the arts to your community through projects like the Quilt Trails of the Tar River, annual publication of County Lines: A Literary Journal, our annual photography show, Franklinton Art Strolls, Christmas at Home Art Show, the Heart for Art Gala and more.

In April we have two exciting events you won't want to miss:

Franklinton Art Stroll April 2nd from 5:30-7:00PM come for. Sponsored by FCAC the whole town joins in with art, music and food.

Quilt Celebration and Chalk Competition April 25th, 10am – 2pm at the historic Male Academy, Louisburg College. Quilt show and a celebration of the Quilt Trails of the Tar River. The chalk art competition's theme will be "quilt patterns."

Perry Memorial Library has supplied Vance County with books, information, and education since 1924. With a print collection of over 100,000 items, you are bound to find something interesting. We also provide computers for use by the public and Wi-Fi. In addition to weekly story times, there are many special programs throughout the year for children and adults. Need computer assistance? The library offers free computer tutoring by appointment. Your public library has something for everyone!
