BEN FRANKLIN SOCIETY
FUND-RAISING EVENTS

JUNE 2015

FELLOW SOCIETY MEMBERS -

We again held two outstanding Events in May - Saturday Dinner on the 16th and my 1st Tomato Pie Buffet on Saturday the 23rd. BreadWorks is becoming known as the Rocky Ford Country Club - thanks to Chef Sara Tipton's help, menus and passion for food.

I've created a NEW FACEBOOK PAGE you can find under "BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm Cabin" to provide convenient access to our upcoming Schedule of Events and Menus. Spread the word!

Check-out CIRCA MAGAZINE (www.circamagazine.com) that featured BreadWorks under Driveable Destinations penned by Jennifer Smart, Asst. Director, Wake Forest Historical Museum (www.wakeforestmuseum.org).

Make your Reservations early for a memorable outing at our Log Cabin - an upscale Sunday afternoon Brunch, or another of Bob's famous Outdoor "Tomato Pie" Buffet with Cabin Front Porch Jazz Vocalist - Stella Jones!

Our Events are open only to Ben Franklin Society Members. Associate Memberships may be purchased at the door ($15/couple/yr). Remember to B.Y.O.B. - we provide glasses, corkage and mixers. Come and enjoy!

UNC-TV FEATURES PEGGY'S HEARTH & GARDEN ON "ALMANAC GARDENER"

We have been notified by Bill Lord that UNC-TV will air 5-minute segments of Peggy's Hearth & Garden on the statewide "Almanac Gardener" show in June. Peggy's Garden will be featured on June 10th at noon, and Peggy's Hearth will be featured on June 20th at noon - thanks to Bill Lord who filmed video footage at Peggy Farm last October 14, 2014.

To better communicate our BreadWorks Schedule of Events, we have created a new Facebook Page. Search and find us under "BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm Cabin". Follow our Page and Share it with your Friends.

CIRCA MAGAZINE - BREADWORKS REVIEW

In the 2015 April-May-June Quarterly edition of CIRCA Magazine, The BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm was featured in the "Driveable Destinations" column that highlights venues within driving distance of Wake Forest/Wake county, NC. Special thanks to Jennifer Smart with the Wake Forest Historical Museum who penned the article after attending our BreadWorks Sunday Brunch on February 15th, 2015. The story is also available on the CIRCA Magazine website at http://www.circamagazine.com/current_issue_article07.htm

JULY 2015 - BREADWORKS SCHEDULE

Here's our planned July dates: Bob's 3rd Outdoor Tomato Pie Buffet with Music, Saturday, July 18th @ 6:00pm and Sunday Brunch on July 26th @ 1:00pm.

LYNCH CREEK FARM WEBSITE REVAMPED

After over ten years of use, our Farm website www.lynchcreek.com has been converted to WordPress and given a total facelift. While long overdue, the task was daunting. The sheer number of documents, photographs and press releases posted was challenging to migrate. Now that both our Ben Franklin Society and Lynch Creek Farm websites are hosted by GoDaddy with Managed WordPress the maintenance of both is easier and a more efficient use of my time. Checkout our new look and BLOG format. If you find any "broken" links, kindly email me so that I can fix them.

GARDENING ENTHUSIASTS WELCOME

We have started a new Garden Club committed to the continued development and maintenance of Peggy McGhee's Colonial Kitchen Garden. Old Salem Museums and Gardens (Winston-Salem, NC) is providing us with garden consulting. We also need docents for future Garden Tours - training provided. We are creating a new tourist attraction with local help from Novozymes and the Franklin County Tourism Development Authority. Call Kerry Carter for details at 267-973-8143.

NEWS & OBSERVER: "BEST KEPT SECRET IN FRANKLIN COUNTY"

We received the Raleigh NEWS & OBSERVER (N&O) paper contest award as the "Best Kept Secret in Franklin County" in July 2014. The statewide contest selected One Site (No. 42) in Each of the 100 Counties of North Carolina. It's not complicated. Better is a bank that is always improving. It's what happens when bankers are committed to continue learning, when customers' passions drive new banking technologies, when businesses succeed and when communities grow. This is our promise.

Louisburg College opened the Tar River Center for History and Culture in 2013. The TRCHC works with local governments, private organizations, educational institutions, and individuals to develop the Upper Tar River region's historical and cultural assets, to foster economic development, and to promote knowledge of the past. Accomplishments to date include: an ongoing lecture series; a column in The Franklin Times, "Tar River Roots"; research assistance provided to the Ben Franklin Society and other organizations; the erection of a Civil War Trails Marker on the campus of Louisburg College; and the development of a walking tour brochure for the Louisburg Historic District.

In 2015 the TRCHC will work with retired school personnel to develop lesson plans pertaining to Franklin County history for use in the public schools and will carry out an oral history project on the desegregation of the Franklin County schools.

The Center's annual report, strategic plan, and other resources are available at:
