BEN FRANKLIN SOCIETY FUND-RAISING EVENTS

OCTOBER 2015

FELLOW SOCIETY MEMBERS -

We again held two events in September - our fifth Tomato Pie Buffet on Saturday the 19th and a Sunday Brunch on the 27th - both SOLD OUT! Our outdoor event season is winding down. We are holding our last Tomato Pie Buffet this month!

Make your October Reservations early for a memorable outing at our Log Cabin - another of Bob's famous Outdoor "Tomato Pie" Buffets with Music on the Front Porch. We have booked RavenRidge Band to play Bluegrass on the Cabin Front Porch (see details below).

October will be busy - with another Private Event hosted at the BreadWorks Cabin and Grounds, 1st-time Hearth&Garden Group Tours and Colonial Hearth Day activities at Peggy McGhee's Farm in Franklinton on October 22-23 for over 200 disadvantaged Franklin County elementary school children.

Our new Facebook Page found under "BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm Cabin" provides convenient online access to our upcoming Schedule of Events and Menu. You can always download a PDF-version of the latest monthly BreadWorks Newsletter from either our www.lynchcreek.com or www.BenFranklinSocietyNC.org websites.

Our Events are open only to Ben Franklin Society Members. Associate Memberships may be purchased at the door ($15/couple/yr). Remember to B.Y.O.B. - we provide glasses, corkage and mixers. Come and enjoy!

NOVEMBER 2015 BREADWORKS CALENDAR

In response to the many requests we get about our future BreadWorks schedule, here's our only planned November date: Saturday Evening Dinner with Music, November 21st @ 6:00pm.

COLONIAL HEARTH DAY - OCTOBER 22ND AND 23RD - 9:30AM-2:30PM

This year's Colonial Hearth Day event will be the 4th year that Peggy McGhee has conceived, managed and hosted this popular educational Franklin County School System field trip for 200+ disadvantaged Elementary School Children. Last year we produced a Video about this Event that is now posted on YouTube and accessible from the Franklin county School System website for all Teachers, Parents and Students to see. Local support of this Ben Franklin Society educational initiative has again been underwritten by United Way, Novozymes and our Society. We have continued to improve the Kitchen & Herb Garden learning station - it has become the centerpiece of the children's experience. Thanks to Bill Lord, UNC-TV is planning to film another Almanac Gardener segment at this year's event.

GRIST MILL SITE INVENTORY - WINTER FIELD TRIPS SCHEDULED

Bob Radcliffe and Ben Allen are gearing-up to hit the back roads of Franklin County in search of uncharted Grist Mill sites. Wednesday midday field trips are planned each month to verify researched locations for archaeological evidence. Site photography and GPS coordinates will be recorded. Our goal is to complete a "Preliminary Grist Mill Inventory of Franklin County". Reserve NOV-18, DEC-9, JAN-6&20, FEB-3&17 and MAR-2&16 - weather and work schedules permitting. Contact Bob at 252-767-1167 or bob@lynchcreek.com for details. Volunteers welcome.

SOCIETY ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP DUES DRIVE IN DECEMBER

Our transition this year to MailChimp from our prior Microsoft ACCESS system necessitated significant redesign and migration of our existing Member and Prospect databases. Society Secretary, Gloria Urbano, and I are working to both maintain and update our records, and plan to initiate an Annual Membership Dues Drive in December. Please help us verify your Membership Status and update your Dues for 2016 at that time. Thanks again for your cooperation.

UNC-TV FEATURES PEGGY'S HEARTH & GARDEN ON "ALMANAC GARDENER"

UNC-TV aired two 5-minute segments of Peggy's Hearth & Garden on the statewide "Almanac Gardener" show in June. Peggy's Colonial Kitchen Garden was aired on June 13th at noon, and her Colonial Kitchen \(Open Hearth\) was aired on June 20th at noon - thanks to Bill Lord who filmed the footage at Peggy's Farm on October 14, 2014. CIRCA MAGAZINE - BREADWORKS REVIEW

In the 2015 April-May-June Quarterly edition of CIRCA Magazine, The BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm was featured in the "Driveable Destinations" column that highlights venues within driving distance of Wake Forest/Wake county, NC. Special thanks to Jennifer Smart with the Wake Forest Historical Museum who penned the article after attending our BreadWorks Sunday Brunch on February 15th, 2015. The story is also available on the CIRCA Magazine website at http://www.circamagazine.com/current_issue_article07.htm

NEWS & OBSERVER: "BEST KEPT SECRET IN FRANKLIN COUNTY"

We received the Raleigh NEWS & OBSERVER (N&O) paper contest award as the "Best Kept Secret in Franklin County" in July 2014. The statewide contest selected One Site (No. 42) in Each of the 100 Counties of North Carolina. Cedar Cross Retreat Center

www.CedarCrossRetreat.org

Cedar Cross is a place to reflect, learn, re-connect with nature, deepen your spiritual life and rest.

Whether walking along a winding trail, watching reflections in a pond, talking with a friend, or gaining insight from a retreat leader, our hope is that you will find the quiet space you need for your faith journey.

We can host groups up to 16 overnight. Two spacious cottages provide quality space for individuals, couples and small groups. We offer 1-on-1 spiritual guidance, and support in creative expression in the Art Studio.

www.louisburg.edu/tarrivercenter

Louisburg College opened the Tar River Center for History and Culture in 2013. The TRCHC works with local governments, private organizations, educational institutions, and individuals to develop the Upper Tar River region's historical and cultural assets, to foster economic development, and to promote knowledge of the past. Accomplishments to date include: an ongoing lecture series; a column in The Franklin Times, "Tar River Roots"; research assistance provided to the Ben Franklin Society and other organizations; the erection of a Civil War Trails Marker on the campus of Louisburg College; and the development of a walking tour brochure for the Louisburg Historic District.

In 2015 the TRCHC will work with retired school personnel to develop lesson plans pertaining to Franklin County history for use in the public schools and will carry out an oral history project on the desegregation of the Franklin County schools.
