BEN FRANKLIN SOCIETY
FUND-RAISING EVENTS

SEPTEMBER 2015

FELLOW SOCIETY MEMBERS -

We again held two events in August - our fourth Tomato Pie Buffet on Saturday the 15th and Sunday Brunch on the 23rd - both SOLD OUT! Our outdoor event season is winding down - plan to attend soon.

Make your September Reservations early for a memorable outing at our Log Cabin - another of Bob's famous Outdoor "Tomato Pie" Buffets with Magician Michael Casey (Magic Mike) returning again this year (see details below) and our popular Sunday Brunch featuring "locally-sourced" ingredients.

September will be busy - with three other Private Events hosted at the BreadWorks Cabin and Grounds.

Our new Facebook Page found under "BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm Cabin" provides convenient online access to our upcoming Schedule of Events and Menus. You can always download a PDF-version of the latest monthly BreadWorks Newsletter from either our www.lynchcreek.com or www.BenFranklinSocietyNC.org websites as well.

Our Events are open only to Ben Franklin Society Members. Associate Memberships may be purchased at the door ($15/couple/yr). Remember to B.Y.O.B. - we provide glasses, corkage and mixers. Come and enjoy!

- BOB RADCLIFFE

OCTOBER 2015 BREADWORKS CALENDAR

In response to the many requests we get about our future BreadWorks schedule, here's our only planned October date: Bob's 6th Outdoor Tomato Pie Buffet with Music, Saturday, October 17th @ 5:00pm (and last this season). Peggy's scheduled Hearth and Garden Tours, and our Annual Colonial Hearth Days, demand our undivided attention in October.

COLONIAL HEARTH DAY SPONSORS - UNITED WAY AND NOVOZYMES

Thanks to Grant Awards from United Way of Franklin County and Novozymes, N.A. again this year, we are able to offer Peggy McGhee's Colonial Hearth Day for about 200 disadvantaged 4th grade students from Franklin County public schools. United Way awarded the Ben Franklin Society $2000 and Novozymes $1000, with the balance of project expenses being funded directly by the Society itself thanks to your Annual Membership Fees, year-round support of BreadWorks Dining and Entertainment Events, and outright Donations.

COLONIAL HEARTH DAY - COMING-UP OCTOBER 22ND AND 23RD

This year's Colonial Hearth Day event will be the 4th year that Peggy McGhee has conceived, managed and hosted this popular educational Franklin County School System field trip for over 200 disadvantaged Elementary School Children. Last year we produced a Video about this Event that is now posted on YouTube and accessible from the Franklin county School System website for all Teachers, Parents and Students to see. Local support of this Ben Franklin Society educational initiative has again been underwritten in large part by United Way and Novozymes (see News Item above). We have continued to expand and improve upon the Kitchen & Herb Garden learning station that has evolved to become a centerpiece of the children's experience (see News Item that follows).

UNC-TV FEATURES PEGGY'S HEARTH & GARDEN ON "ALMANAC GARDENER"

UNC-TV aired two 5-minute segments of Peggy's Hearth & Garden on the statewide "Almanac Gardener" show in June. Peggy's Colonial Kitchen Garden was aired on June 13th at noon, and her Colonial Kitchen \(Open Hearth\) was aired on June 20th at noon - thanks to Bill Lord who filmed the footage at Peggy's Farm on October 14, 2014. Use the embedded links above to view the videos, or visit <http://video.unc.tv/org/program/almanac-gardener/>

CIRCA MAGAZINE - BREADWORKS REVIEW

In the 2015 April-May-June Quarterly edition of CIRCA Magazine, The BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm was featured in the "Driveable Destinations" column that highlights venues within driving distance of Wake Forest/Wake county, NC. Special thanks to Jennifer Smart with the Wake Forest Historical Museum who penned the article after attending our BreadWorks Sunday Brunch on February 15th, 2015. The story is now available on the CIRCA Magazine website at http://www.circamagazine.com/current\_issue\_article07.htm

NEWS & OBSERVER: "BEST KEPT SECRET IN FRANKLIN COUNTY"

We received the Raleigh NEWS & OBSERVER (N&O) paper contest award as the "Best Kept Secret in Franklin County" in July 2014. The statewide contest selected One Site (No. 42) in Each of the 100 Counties of North Carolina. Read the Article online at <http://www.newsobserver.com/2014/07/06/3988523/exploring-the-country-roads-in-n.html?sp=99/100/&ihp=1>

BREADWORKS NEWSLETTER SUBSCRIPTION MILESTONE

Our MailChimp Mail List surpassed 900 email addresses in mid-August. Knowing that most Email entries are for couples, we will soon reach over 1500 individuals - a goal I thought would have taken much longer to accomplish.

It's not complicated. Better is a bank that is always improving. It's what happens when bankers are committed to continue learning, when customers' passions drive new banking technologies, when businesses succeed and when communities grow. This is our promise.

Louisburg College opened the Tar River Center for History and Culture in 2013. The TRCHC works with local governments, private organizations, educational institutions, and individuals to develop the Upper Tar River region's historical and cultural assets, to foster economic development, and to promote knowledge of the past. Accomplishments to date include: an ongoing lecture series; a column in The Franklin Times, "Tar River Roots"; research assistance provided to the Ben Franklin Society and other organizations; the erection of a Civil War Trails Marker on the campus of Louisburg College; and the development of a walking tour brochure for the Louisburg Historic District.

In 2015 the TRCHC will work with retired school personnel to develop lesson plans pertaining to Franklin County history for use in the public schools and will carry out an oral history project on the desegregation of the Franklin County schools.

The Center's annual report, strategic plan, and other resources are available at:
